	Why must I consider?	What must happen?
logged_in	Indicates whether the user is logged in or not which affects the main functionality that is built on a specific user profile	Limits functionality if user not logged in and prompt for logging in; when logged out, clear user-specific data display
Other states that are related to app settings	Might be important settings that will persistent until user changes back	TBD